VESUVIAN INN

The Vesuvian Inn is a multi-functional academic and residential hospitality complex situated overlooking the Bay of Naples and centrally located to the most famous ancient Roman sites in the world, such as Pompei, Herculaneum and of course, Stabia.

Our focus is to support and broaden the study of the cultural, historic and artistic patrimony of our southern Italian region and partner with researchers and institutions from all over the world. The Vesuvian Inn is an ideal location for study and tourism in the Bay of Naples, from individual visits to group tours and academic programs.
